SPEAKER
Chuck Chase, CFM

Chuck Chase is the Floodplain Outreach Coordinator for the Nebraska Department of Natural Resources and a Certified Floodplain Manager. Chuck presents training and outreach programs that help local communities implement the National Flood Insurance Program.

Chuck is a retired Coast Guard Chief and formerly an Exercise Training Officer for the Nebraska Emergency Management Agency. He is on the Professional Development Committee for the Nebraska Floodplain and Stormwater Manager's Association.

Chuck has a BS in Education (go Peru Bobcats), an MS in Quality Systems Management, and is a member of the State of Nebraska Speakers Bureau.

Chuck enjoys meeting new people and getting to know their communities.

SPEAKER
Steve Parrish, PLS, CFedS

Steve began surveying with USFS in 1963 and Utah PLS in 1973. He was a land surveyor with USFS until 1984. In 1985, he transferred to USBLM and was a BLM NV Cadastral Chief from 1989-1995. He retired from the government in 1995 and entered the private sector. Steve is licensed in 10 states, is a Nevada water rights surveyor and was county surveyor for Inyo, Modoc and Mono Counties, CA.

Steve is a contributor to "The Surveying Handbook," and has presented workshops in 27 States, Canada and Australia and has been an instructor for the BLM/FS Advanced Cadastral Survey Courses for 12 years.

Steve worked for Tri State Surveying (NV) for 13 years, was an adjunct professor for Great Basin College (NV) 2004-2016, became a Certified Federal Surveyor (CFedS) in 2007 and completed a Bachelor of Applied Science degree in 2009. He is the CFedS Panel Chairperson/Training Coordinator, is a Project Manager at Lumos & Associates (Reno, NV) and Alpine and Mono County Surveyor (CA). Steve's 56+ years of land surveying knowledge and experience, coupled with surveying workshops, consulting, and expert witness testimony has taught him that he has a lot more to learn.

He enjoys travel with family, photography & fishing.
